

Monster Worldwide elects Roberto Tuniola, Datalogic SpA Vice Chairman and CEO, as a member of the board.

New York, September 23, 2008 – Monster Worldwide, Inc. (NASDAQ: MNST), the parent company of Monster®, the leading global online careers and recruitment resource, announced that its board of directors has elected Roberto Tuniola, Vice Chairman and CEO of Europe's Datalogic S.p.A., as a member of the board. The addition of Mr. Tuniola reflects Monster's ever-expanding international presence and focus.

With the election of Mr. Tuniola, Monster Worldwide's board of directors expands to eight directors. Six of the eight board members are independent, consistent with the Company's corporate governance policy that at least two-thirds of its directors be independent.

"Roberto - said Sal Iannuzzi, Monster Worldwide Chairman, President and Chief Executive Officer - is an established, recognized and highly respected business leader in Italy and throughout Europe. Known for his innovative business acumen, Roberto brings not only deep business strength and expertise, but also a fresh, global perspective to the Monster board". "Roberto's election – he said - is evidence of Monster's commitment to extending our global footprint, and his addition to our already formidable team enhances and furthers our global opportunity".

About Roberto Tuniola

As Vice Chairman and CEO of Datalogic S.p.A., Mr. Tuniola leads the Datalogic Group, a world-class producer of bar code readers, data collection mobile computers and RFID technology systems. Under his leadership, the international company increased sales from an estimated 35 million euro in 1993 to over 400 million euro in 2007.

A native of Bologna, Italy, Mr. Tuniola spent the earlier part of his career working in the financial services industry for leading banking and insurance companies until he joined Datalogic S.p.A. in 1988 as its Financial Director, later becoming General Manager in 1993 and CEO in 1995. Currently, Mr. Tuniola also serves as CEO of Hydra S.p.A., a holding of the Datalogic Group. He is also a member of the board of directors at Monrif S.p.A. and PIQUADRO S.P.A., and holds leadership positions in the various subsidiaries of the Datalogic Group.

In addition to his nearly two decades of strong financial leadership at Datalogic S.p.A., Mr. Tuniola has recently been recognized for his talent for innovation. In November 2006, he was the recipient of the 10th Italian edition of the prestigious Ernst & Young "Entrepreneur of the Year®" award, and in 2007 was presented with an iD Limelight Award for the most media attention around a revolutionary idea at the annual ID People Awards, a ceremony that recognizes outstanding contributions made to the Automatic Identification field.
